

Richmond Merchants Will Offer Many Bargains in Thursday's Times-Dispatch

COUNCILMEN DISGUSTED

Those Who Signed the Protest Against Election Will Not Qualify.

A JAPANESE HONEYMOON

West End Baptist Sunday School to Go to Ocean View—To Sell a Handsome Residence.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

PETERSBURG, VA., July 4.—The action of the Council Friday in electing officers for the full term, despite the communication from the newly-elected councilmen who are not members of the present Council, does not seem to put an end to the contention. The members who are to qualify in September believe that the new body should have the power to elect the officers that are to serve throughout the term of the councilmen, for this body will have no voice in the selection of city officers unless it qualifies in September. The present Council, and elects officers to serve under the Council that will succeed them. It is said that the councilmen-elect who signed the protest will not qualify.

One councilman, who was present at the meeting Friday, expressed himself as being disgusted with the whole affair. It was said that the matter would not be taken to the courts.

Just what course the protesting councilmen will pursue cannot be said.

JAPANESE HONEYMOON.

The Japanese Honeymoon is to be given in Petersburg Tuesday evening by local talent, and bids fair to be a very delightful occasion. The cast will consist of seventy people, who have been thoroughly trained for their parts. The little children will take a prominent part in the play.

The West End Baptist Sunday school will carry a large excursion party to Norfolk and Ocean View Thursday. The members of the Sunday school have worked diligently, and the excursion has been thoroughly advertised. The excursions from this church are among the best managed that leave the city.

Mr. Andrew Allen, the general manager for Joseph Middleby, Jr., a large manufacturing confectionery firm of Boston, is on a visit to his home in this city.

Mr. E. M. Allen, who has been absent for several months visiting relatives and friends in New York, New Jersey and Vermont, is also in Petersburg.

Mrs. J. M. Williams will sell her handsome residence on Adams Street, at auction July 12th. This is one of the handsomest residences in the city, and was formerly the home of Mrs. D. B. Tennant.

Miss Marie May, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. S. W. Tennant, from Washington Street, has gone to Farmville to spend several days.

FINE FISHING.

The Chickahominy a Popular Recreation Ground.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

PROVIDENCE FORGE, VA., July 4.—The popularity of the Chickahominy River as a fishing ground, there is scarcely a day that fishing parties from the capital city are not seen at Salles, angling for the toothsome rock bass. The grounds have been put in fine condition, and with the natural attractions it is an ideal place for picnics and such gatherings.

Arrangements are being made for the annual entertainment to be given at the Chickahominy Club, at this place. Quite a neat sum has been realized each year by these entertainments, and great hopes are entertained for this year.

Miss Annie Christian left this week for Charlottesville, where she will attend the School of Music.

Mrs. Roan Valentine and little daughter, Joan, have gone to the mountains for Mrs. Valentine's health, which is quite delicate.

Mrs. C. D. Coleman, with her maid and two little daughters, have been to the mountains for a few days, and are returning home with friends and a good deal of money.

Rev. W. S. Lee preached Sunday night in the chapel here, to a large congregation. Mrs. Herbert Scott and little Ruth are spending some time with Mrs. Berry Haxall at Squirrel Park.

FATHER OF FIFTEEN.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

GORDONSVILLE, VA., July 4.—Mr. George W. Faulconer, Sr., one of the oldest citizens of this town, died Friday at the home of his son, Herbert Faulconer, in Rockville, Va., and was interred here today in Hamilton cemetery.

He was the last of seven brothers, who lived in and around Gordonsville, and were well known in the community. He was the father of fifteen children, and leaves a most estimable wife and large family of children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

It was told him in his youth by a gypsy that he would be father of fifteen children.

King William Notes.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

ETNA MILLS, VA., July 4.—Little Louise, daughter of John H. Hill, near Ettna Mills, who fell from the second story window three weeks ago and broke her leg, is now out again. This little girl got up in the night to get a drink of water and mistook the window for the door to the room.

The dwelling of John H. Hill, colored, near Globe, was burned a few nights ago. Nothing was saved but one trunk.

Mr. Robert Woods and children, of Clinton Forge, are visiting the home of Mr. Russell McGee, near Globe.

Miss Annie Anderson has a mare which gave birth to two colts—mare and horse. They are now five weeks old, and are a picture of each other.

At Children's Day at Epworth Methodist Church Sunday evening while the children were reciting Allen Brooks had a crazy fit and it took four men to hold him. Ordinarily Mr. Brooks is a very quiet gentleman.

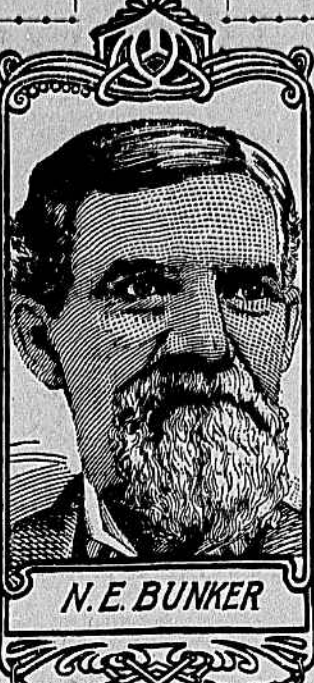

His father, Mr. C. B. Sneed, "Fair View," his brother, Dr. W. W. Sneed, a student at the University of Virginia, and Mr. J. B. Sneed are attending him.

Wedding Cards.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WINCHESTER, VA., July 4.—Captain W. L. Culler, of this city, has announced the approaching wedding of his daughter, Miss Hattie Ethel, to Mr. G. Graham Baker, of this city. The ceremony is to take place at the home of Mr. C. C. Baker, at the residence of Samuel Baker, of the county, and a nephew of Mr. C. C. Baker, of Newport News. Captain Culler is a former member of the Maryland House of Delegates. He now has a store here.

SUFFERED NINE YEARS WITH CATARRH OF THE STOMACH. PE-RU-NA CURED.

N. E. BUNKER

A Rear-Admiral's Praise of Pe-Ru-NA.

Mr. Philip Hinchborn, Rear-Admiral U. S. Navy, Washington, D. C., Superintendent of the Bureau of the leading battleships of the Navy, in a recent letter says:

"After the use of your Peruna for a short period, I can now cheerfully recommend your valuable remedy to any one who is in need of an invigorating tonic."

Our files contain hundreds of testimonials similar to the above, from men who are prominent in national affairs.

Thousands of people have catarrh of the stomach, or bowels, or other pelvic organs so prevalent in summer, and do not know it. We have thousands of testimonials like that of Mr. Bunker touching the merits of Peruna as a remedy for all catarrhal diseases.

Do not delay. Buy Peruna to-day, for a day gained means a day nearer recovery.

Use Pe-Ru-NA for the Catarrhal Diseases of Summer.

The diseases most common in summer are those of the stomach, bowels and other pelvic organs. A remedy that cures all the catarrhal derangements of these organs should certainly be considered a household necessity during this season.

Peruna is this very remedy. A book of testimonials, containing hundreds of cures, sent free to any address.

A symptom of catarrh of the stomach is sour stomach and heavy feeling after eating.

A symptom of catarrh of the bowels is constipation and heavy feeling after eating.

A symptom of catarrh of the pelvic organs is a feeling of heaviness and pain after eating.

A symptom of catarrh of the bladder is a feeling of heaviness and pain after eating.

A symptom of catarrh of the prostate is a feeling of heaviness and pain after eating.

A symptom of catarrh of the uterus is a feeling of heaviness and pain after eating.

A symptom of catarrh of the ovaries is a feeling of heaviness and pain after eating.

A symptom of catarrh of the vagina is a feeling of heaviness and pain after eating.

A symptom of catarrh of the cervix is a feeling of heaviness and pain after eating.

A symptom of catarrh of the uterus is a feeling of heaviness and pain after eating.

A symptom of catarrh of the ovaries is a feeling of heaviness and pain after eating.

A symptom of catarrh of the vagina is a feeling of heaviness and pain after eating.

A symptom of catarrh of the cervix is a feeling of heaviness and pain after eating.

A symptom of catarrh of the uterus is a feeling of heaviness and pain after eating.

A symptom of catarrh of the ovaries is a feeling of heaviness and pain after eating.

A symptom of catarrh of the vagina is a feeling of heaviness and pain after eating.

A symptom of catarrh of the cervix is a feeling of heaviness and pain after eating.

A symptom of catarrh of the uterus is a feeling of heaviness and pain after eating.

A symptom of catarrh of the ovaries is a feeling of heaviness and pain after eating.

A symptom of catarrh of the vagina is a feeling of heaviness and pain after eating.

A symptom of catarrh of the cervix is a feeling of heaviness and pain after eating.

A symptom of catarrh of the uterus is a feeling of heaviness and pain after eating.

A symptom of catarrh of the ovaries is a feeling of heaviness and pain after eating.

A symptom of catarrh of the vagina is a feeling of heaviness and pain after eating.

A symptom of catarrh of the cervix is a feeling of heaviness and pain after eating.

A symptom of catarrh of the uterus is a feeling of heaviness and pain after eating.

A symptom of catarrh of the ovaries is a feeling of heaviness and pain after eating.

A symptom of catarrh of the vagina is a feeling of heaviness and pain after eating.

A symptom of catarrh of the cervix is a feeling of heaviness and pain after eating.

A symptom of catarrh of the uterus is a feeling of heaviness and pain after eating.

A symptom of catarrh of the ovaries is a feeling of heaviness and pain after eating.

A symptom of catarrh of the vagina is a feeling of heaviness and pain after eating.

A symptom of catarrh of the cervix is a feeling of heaviness and pain after eating.

A symptom of catarrh of the uterus is a feeling of heaviness and pain after eating.

A symptom of catarrh of the ovaries is a feeling of heaviness and pain after eating.

A symptom of catarrh of the vagina is a feeling of heaviness and pain after eating.

A symptom of catarrh of the cervix is a feeling of heaviness and pain after eating.

A symptom of catarrh of the uterus is a feeling of heaviness and pain after eating.

A symptom of catarrh of the ovaries is a feeling of heaviness and pain after eating.

A symptom of catarrh of the vagina is a feeling of heaviness and pain after eating.

A symptom of catarrh of the cervix is a feeling of heaviness and pain after eating.

A symptom of catarrh of the uterus is a feeling of heaviness and pain after eating.

A symptom of catarrh of the ovaries is a feeling of heaviness and pain after eating.

A symptom of catarrh of the vagina is a feeling of heaviness and pain after eating.

IN BREACH IN VIRGINIA

Generally Observed as a Holiday, But No Patriotic Demonstrations.

THE SHIPS DECORATE

The German Flagship Hoists the Stars and Stripes and Fires the National Salute.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NEWPORT NEWS, VA., July 4.—The ships in the harbor here celebrated July 4th by elaborate decorations. The flagship Vineta, of the German cruiser squadron, honored the day by hoisting the stars and stripes at the head of her after-trunk and by firing a national salute at noon.

The ship yard closed down for the day.

In Roanoke.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

ROANOKE, VA., July 4.—The Fourth passed off very quietly to-day. The business houses, shops and offices were closed, and the whole population of the city went out to the suburbs where horse races, base-ball and golf were attractions.

At Staunton.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

STAUNTON, VA., July 4.—The largest crowd for years was here to-day to witness the Fourth of July celebration. The most interesting feature of the day was the real race between Staunton horse company No. 2 and Wayneboro. These teams did, the time being thirty-one seconds, and the purse was divided between them.

At Bristol.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

BRISTOL, VA., July 4.—Notwithstanding Bristol had no set programme for the Fourth, every train arriving to-day was crowded with excursionists. The only amusement was two games of base-ball between the Bristol Athletics and the Greenville, Tenn. team. Bristol won the forenoon game by a score of 4 to 2 and the afternoon game by 4 to 0.

In Petersburg.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

PETERSBURG, VA., July 4.—The closing of public buildings, banks, railroad offices and a few stores marked the only formal celebration of the day in Petersburg. There were excursions to the city and many picnic and fishing parties that left Petersburg. Very few fireworks were in evidence to-day, but during the early evening there were the noises of cannon crackers and other explosives.

In Norfolk.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORFOLK, VA., July 4.—The Fourth passed off quietly in Norfolk. The city was deserted, but thousands of excursionists congregated at the various seaside resorts.

An excursion train from Richmond, on the return trip, jumped the track on Lovett Avenue, in the heart of the city, and delayed five hundred passengers for several hours. No one was injured.

At Fredericksburg.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., July 4.—Today was quietly observed here as a holiday. Some places of business were open for a portion of the day, but many did not open their establishments at all. The banks and postoffice were closed.

The members of the Fourth of July Association, who were in charge of the day, were in the city this morning, forming a long procession of wagons, filled with children and older people, cheering and waving flags, and many did not leave the city until late in the afternoon.

An excursion train from Richmond, on the return trip, jumped the track on Lovett Avenue, in the heart of the city, and delayed five hundred passengers for several hours. No one was injured.

At Fredericksburg.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., July 4.—Today was quietly observed here as a holiday. Some places of business were open for a portion of the day, but many did not open their establishments at all. The banks and postoffice were closed.

The members of the Fourth of July Association, who were in charge of the day, were in the city this morning, forming a long procession of wagons, filled with children and older people, cheering and waving flags, and many did not leave the city until late in the afternoon.

An excursion train from Richmond, on the return trip, jumped the track on Lovett Avenue, in the heart of the city, and delayed five hundred passengers for several hours. No one was injured.

At Fredericksburg.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., July 4.—Today was quietly observed here as a holiday. Some places of business were open for a portion of the day, but many did not open their establishments at all. The banks and postoffice were closed.

The members of the Fourth of July Association, who were in charge of the day, were in the city this morning, forming a long procession of wagons, filled with children and older people, cheering and waving flags, and many did not leave the city until late in the afternoon.

An excursion train from Richmond, on the return trip, jumped the track on Lovett Avenue, in the heart of the city, and delayed five hundred passengers for several hours. No one was injured.

At Fredericksburg.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., July 4.—Today was quietly observed here as a holiday. Some places of business were open for a portion of the day, but many did not open their establishments at all. The banks and postoffice were closed.

The members of the Fourth of July Association, who were in charge of the day, were in the city this morning, forming a long procession of wagons, filled with children and older people, cheering and waving flags, and many did not leave the city until late in the afternoon.

An excursion train from Richmond, on the return trip, jumped the track on Lovett Avenue, in the heart of the city, and delayed five hundred passengers for several hours. No one was injured.

At Fredericksburg.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., July 4.—Today was quietly observed here as a holiday. Some places of business were open for a portion of the day, but many did not open their establishments at all. The banks and postoffice were closed.

The members of the Fourth of July Association, who were in charge of the day, were in the city this morning, forming a long procession of wagons, filled with children and older people, cheering and waving flags, and many did not leave the city until late in the afternoon.

An excursion train from Richmond, on the return trip, jumped the track on Lovett Avenue, in the heart of the city, and delayed five hundred passengers for several hours. No one was injured.

At Fredericksburg.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., July 4.—Today was quietly observed here as a holiday. Some places of business were open for a portion of the day, but many did not open their establishments at all. The banks and postoffice were closed.

The members of the Fourth of July Association, who were in charge of the day, were in the city this morning, forming a long procession of wagons, filled with children and older people, cheering and waving flags, and many did not leave the city until late in the afternoon.

An excursion train from Richmond, on the return trip, jumped the track on Lovett Avenue, in the heart of the city, and delayed five hundred passengers for several hours. No one was injured.

IN BREACH IN VIRGINIA

Generally Observed as a Holiday, But No Patriotic Demonstrations.

THE SHIPS DECORATE

The German Flagship Hoists the Stars and Stripes and Fires the National Salute.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NEWPORT NEWS, VA., July 4.—The ships in the harbor here celebrated July 4th by elaborate decorations. The flagship Vineta, of the German cruiser squadron, honored the day by hoisting the stars and stripes at the head of her after-trunk and by firing a national salute at noon.

The ship yard closed down for the day.

In Roanoke.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

ROANOKE, VA., July 4.—The Fourth passed off very quietly to-day. The business houses, shops and offices were closed, and the whole population of the city went out to the suburbs where horse races, base-ball and golf were attractions.

At Staunton.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

STAUNTON, VA., July 4.—The largest crowd for years was here to-day to witness the Fourth of July celebration. The most interesting feature of the day was the real race between Staunton horse company No. 2 and Wayneboro. These teams did, the time being thirty-one seconds, and the purse was divided between them.

At Bristol.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

BRISTOL, VA., July 4.—Notwithstanding Bristol had no set programme for the Fourth, every train arriving to-day was crowded with excursionists. The only amusement was two games of base-ball between the Bristol Athletics and the Greenville, Tenn. team. Bristol won the forenoon game by a score of 4 to 2 and the afternoon game by 4 to 0.

In Petersburg.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

PETERSBURG, VA., July 4.—The closing of public buildings, banks, railroad offices and a few stores marked the only formal celebration of the day in Petersburg. There were excursions to the city and many picnic and fishing parties that left Petersburg. Very few fireworks were in evidence to-day, but during the early evening there were the noises of cannon crackers and other explosives.

In Norfolk.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORFOLK, VA., July 4.—The Fourth passed off quietly in Norfolk. The city was deserted, but thousands of excursionists congregated at the various seaside resorts.

An excursion train from Richmond, on the return trip, jumped the track on Lovett Avenue, in the heart of the city, and delayed five hundred passengers for several hours. No one was injured.

At Fredericksburg.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., July 4.—Today was quietly observed here as a holiday. Some places of business were open for a portion of the day, but many did not open their establishments at all. The banks and postoffice were closed.

The members of the Fourth of July Association, who were in charge of the day, were in the city this morning, forming a long procession of wagons, filled with children and older people, cheering and waving flags, and many did not leave the city until late in the afternoon.

An excursion train from Richmond, on the return trip, jumped the track on Lovett Avenue, in the heart of the city, and delayed five hundred passengers for several hours. No one was injured.

At Fredericksburg.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., July 4.—Today was quietly observed here as a holiday. Some places of business were open for a portion of the day, but many did not open their establishments at all. The banks and postoffice were closed.

The members of the Fourth of July Association, who were in charge of the day, were in the city this morning, forming a long procession of wagons, filled with children and older people, cheering and waving flags, and many did not leave the city until late in the afternoon.

An excursion train from Richmond, on the return trip, jumped the track on Lovett Avenue, in the heart of the city, and delayed five hundred passengers for several hours. No one was injured.

At Fredericksburg.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., July 4.—Today was quietly observed here as a holiday. Some places of business were open for a portion of the day, but many did not open their establishments at all. The banks and postoffice were closed.

The members of the Fourth of July Association, who were in charge of the day, were in the city this morning, forming a long procession of wagons, filled with children and older people, cheering and waving flags, and many did not leave the city until late in the afternoon.

An excursion train from Richmond, on the return trip, jumped the track on Lovett Avenue, in the heart of the city, and delayed five hundred passengers for several hours. No one was injured.

At Fredericksburg.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., July 4.—Today was quietly observed here as a holiday. Some places of business were open for a portion of the day, but many did not open their establishments at all. The banks and postoffice were closed.

The members of the Fourth of July Association, who were in charge of the day, were in the city this morning, forming a long procession of wagons, filled with children and older people, cheering and waving flags, and many did not leave the city until late in the afternoon.

An excursion train from Richmond, on the return trip, jumped the track on Lovett Avenue, in the heart of the city, and delayed five hundred passengers for several hours. No one was injured.

At Fredericksburg.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., July 4.—Today was quietly observed here as a holiday. Some places of business were open for a portion of